Regional SWAT In-Service Training

Don't forget to register for our Regional SWAT In-service Training June 20-21 in Salemburg. This course is designed for active tactical teams that want the opportunity to receive in-service training by participating in a series of workshops to test their decision-making, shooting skills, tactical skills and their ability to function as a team. The workshops will focus on a variety of tactical issues encountered by specialty units in the SWAT world. For more details got to: <http://ncja.ncdoj.gov/RSIST.aspx>

New Courses

Traffic Incident Management - provides first responders a shared understanding of the requirements for safe, quick clearance of traffic incident scenes; prompt, reliable and open communication; and motorist and responder safe guards.

FBI ViCAP: Hands-on Database Training - provides hands-on training for those tasked with entering cases into the ViCAP Web system.

School Director/Qualified Assistant Orientation - provides orientation information to criminal justice personnel who are newly designated as school directors or qualified assistants on their various responsibilities and functions according to North Carolina Administrative Code.

Online Courses

All law enforcement 2016 in-service courses are available to be taken online (except for 2016 Firearms Training and Qualification). We have several detention and telecommunicator in-service courses online and will be adding more. Check this page for the latest information and how to register to take them: <http://ncja.ncdoj.gov/online.aspx>.

New Employee

Please join NCJA in welcoming Perry Harris to the Commission/In-service team as the new School Director for the Instructor Training program. Perry has approximately 6 1/2 years of law enforcement experience with the Pinebluff Police Department, where he served as Police Chief. He has been a Criminal Justice Instructor for over 23 years teaching a variety of law enforcement related topics for several community colleges, East Carolina University Police Department, as well as running his own training company. His most recent position was BLET School Director for Montgomery Community College.

Congratulations

On April 6, in conjunction with the NC Center for Safer Schools, the Governor's Task Force on Safer Schools presented the School Safety Excellence Award to Mark Strickland, Director of the Justice Academy in Salemburg. The purpose of the award is to "recognize individuals that convey a high standard of excellence in their performance and involvement in promoting school safety".
