NORTH CAROLINA JUSTICE ACADEMY

Quality training for criminal justice professionals

October 2016

New Catalog is now available – January 2017 to June 2017

We have just published all of our courses for January – June 2017. We are offering several new courses like “BIRDE: Basic Incident Response to Digital Evidence,” “EXCEL for Collision Investigation,” “Police Media Relations,” and “Racial Intelligence Training for Executive Leaders.” To view the pdf version click here: Training Catalog. To view the courses on our website: http://ncja.ncdoj.gov/Course-Offerings-\(A-Z\).aspx.aspx). Remember, to register for all our courses you must go to: NC Justice Academy Training Portal. Call Anthony Aycock at 910-525-4158 x227 if you need help with our portal.

Update on Salemburg Campus after Hurricane Matthew

Thanks to a lot of hard work by our employees, NCJA classes, on the Salemburg Campus, resumed as scheduled on Monday, October 17. For all outside agency classes, (like Corrections, Juvenile Justice, SBI, DMV, etc.) please communicate with your agency regarding the status of your class. Before you travel to our campus, you need to check the status of the roads. The NCDOT site is a good starting point: <https://tims.ncdot.gov/tims/>. Thank you for your patience during this time and please remember those that are still suffering from the devastation.

How busy is the Justice Academy?

From January to August, NCJA-West served officers from 245 law enforcement agencies, and in 2015, it served officers from more than 375 different agencies.

New Employees

NCJA welcomes Jesse Kittrell to our Tactical & Traffic Center. Kittrell is tasked with overseeing our Physical Fitness and SCAT Instructor Programs. Prior to coming to the Academy, he was a Sergeant with the Patrol Division in the Clinton Police Department. For two years, he also worked as a detective on the NIT (Neighborhood Improvement Team) which works with narcotics investigations. Kittrell taught in-service and has the following certifications: Physical Fitness Instructor, Subject Control Instructor and Firearms Instructor. He will remain sworn with the Clinton Police Department as a reserve officer.

We also welcome Greg Raynor to the North Carolina Justice Academy; Greg is our new Maintenance Mechanic IV in the Operations Department. Greg comes to us with many years of dedicated service from Sampson County Schools. Greg brings several much needed mechanical skills to our Maintenance Department. We are glad he has decided to join our team.

Promotions

Tawnya Smith has accepted the Bookstore Manager position for the East Campus. Tawnya worked closely with Ruby Bryant, who recently retired, to ensure a smooth transition. Please join us in congratulating Tawnya!

Vicki Helms accepted the position as the Director's Administrative Assistant. For the past several weeks, Vicki has been working with Darlene Jackson, who recently retired. We all welcome Vicki to her new position.

Danny McPhail has accepted the promotion to the Maintenance Mechanic III position. Danny has served the Academy in the Maintenance Department for the past 9 years, and has proven to be a valuable part of the Academy's Maintenance Department team.

In-Service Instructor Updates

Calling all certified criminal justice instructors – If you plan to teach any of the 2017 in-service training topics, you want to have your seat reserved. The majority of the materials will be presented by the developers. There is still room in some of the classes and you can be added to the waitlist if needed.
