

UPCOMING COURSES

TAUGHT BY NCJA INSTRUCTORS AT SAMARCAND

ALL STUDENTS WHO STAY ON CAMPUS WILL BE PROVIDED MEALS FOR FREE.
REGISTER IN ACADIS TODAY!

COMMUNITY ORIENTED POLICING JUNE 5-7, 2019

This course will familiarize law enforcement officers and other personnel with the philosophies and concepts of community oriented and problem-solving policing.

TAKING RACE RELATIONS AND UNDERSTANDING TO HEART (T.R.R.U.T.H.) JUNE 11-12, 2019

This course is intended for those who will be actively engaged in community-relations initiatives within their agency.

VERBAL JUDO JUNE 13-14, 2019

This course is designed for criminal justice professionals seeking to expand on their tactical communication skills to further preserve law and order while maintaining their own and the public's safety.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT MANAGERS JUNE 17-21, 2019

Law enforcement managers and first-line supervisors who are responsible for directing and managing law enforcement personnel in their daily activities.

TACTICAL LEADERSHIP: CRITICAL LESSONS LEARNED JUNE 24-28, 2019

This course is designed for both tactically and non-tactically trained law enforcement officers aspiring to develop their leadership skills in the initial moments of an evolving incident as well as the management of a scene that has escalated into a Critical Incident.

3600 SAMARCAND ROAD * JACKSON SPRINGS, NC 27281

NCJA.NCDOJ.GOV